Declaration and signature

By my signature and under penalty of Section 161 of the Danish Criminal Code, I solemnly declare that I have held a driving licence for the past 2 years and during that period have driven a category B car (passenger car). Furthermore, I declare that I have not been disqualified from driving for the past 5 years and that my driving licence is not otherwise subject to restrictions or special terms. Against this background, I request that my driving licence be exchanged for a Danish driving licence pursuant to Section 2(1) of the Danish Exchange Order.

Date and signature

Executive Order No. 203 of 4th March 2016 on the exchange of a foreign driving licence without a driving test

Section 2(1). A holder of a foreign driving licence for category B (passenger car) issued outside the EU and EEA or a driving licence issued based on such driving licence may also have this driving licence exchanged for a similar Danish driving licence for category B (passenger car) without such holder having to pass a driving test where:

- 1) the foreign driving licence is issued in a country or state whose traffic conditions and general level of road safety warrant such exchange without passing a driving test;
- 2) the Danish Road Safety Agency has made a decision

under Section 3 to the effect that the conditions of Section 2(1) (i) and (ii) are met,

- 3) the applicant, in connection with the application, submits a written solemn declaration to the effect that he or she has held a driving licence for the past 2 years and during that period has driven a category B car (passenger car) and
- 4) that, in connection with the application, the applicant submits a written solemn declaration to the effect that he or she has not been disqualified from driving for the past 5 years and that his or her driving licence is not otherwise subject to restrictions or special terms.

The Danish Criminal Code

Section 161 of the Danish Criminal Code: Any person who, in circumstances other than those provided for in Section 158 of this Act, gives false evidence before any public authority or for the information of such authority, on his or her word of honour or in a similar solemn way, where such formality is prescribed or allowed, shall be liable to a fine or imprisonment for up to two years.
